Act Now: Award Winning One Act Plays Eileen Enwright Hodgetts

Six Award Winning One Act Plays for actors and directors looking for something new and different. Each of these plays has received one or more awards in national competitions, and offers something to delight audiences and challenge the actors. In Visitors a battered woman believes that she has been visited by aliens, who will one day return and rescue her from her drab life. Mario's Fingers set in a rundown bar, presents a unique take on disease and disability. In Twilight, a young girl falls off her bicycle and into the arms of a very special ghost. A Candle For Elvis is a delight for actors and audience as Elvis is released by the aliens who sucked him up to examine his brain. War Brides is a tender remembrance of World War 2, and For All the Saints is an all-out fantasy as stained glass saints meet up in a London basement. Simple sets, some costuming, and royalty free for schools, colleges, and community theatre groups.
