Playing With Your Cat

Play is very important for cats, particularly kittens, as it teaches them the skills needed for life and lessons about the world around them. Play is a great way for a cat to use up some of his energy, keep fit and healthy and keep his brain alert and active. The best games encourage cats to stalk, pounce, chase and bat objects with a paw in a safe way.

Caring For Your Cat

Caring for a cat is a big responsibility and one that the whole family can share. Below are the key things that every young person should know about caring for their cat.
