Good @ Games: Book Four in The Flirting Games Series

A return to Compass Court Boarding School, and to several of your favourite characters.

Flora knows she should be over the moon to have Gabriel's younger brother, Michael, as her new boyfriend. They are, after all, so much better suited than she and Gabriel would have been. So why isn't she happy and why does her mind keep returning to Gabriel?

Gabriel is horrified to find himself developing feelings for his brother's girlfriend, but he had his chance with Flora and now it's too late. Surely it's much better this way, Flora is sweet and unspoilt, where as he is just as jaded as ever...

Jessica Chase has her hands full. Determined to keep her head down at her new school and concentrate on staying out of trouble this time, she finds herself constantly distracted by her feelings for not one, not two, but three totally different boys.

The Good Boy: The gorgeous geek, assigned to help Jessica catch up in class. He's clever and yet he doesn't know how handsome he is.

The Bad Boy: Dark and dangerously easy to fall for, Jessica tries to steer well clear, but being constantly thrown together makes it tough to keep away from temptation.

The Fantasy: After receiving an internal school email meant for someone else, Jessica starts to chat with the sender, he seems like the perfect boy, funny, smart and clearly confident, Jessica begins to wonder if he can really be so perfect or if he should stay a fantasy.
