The most picturesque scenes of rural America often feature a barn. Our stirring photographic tour of these nostalgic farm structures illustrates some of the most distinctive regional interpretations of barn design and construction around the country, including round, octagonal, stone, and bank barns. This beautiful, full-color book depicts different ways in which historic structures have been preserved, adapted, or rehabilitated.

Nancy Mohr lives in a converted barn in Unionville, Pennsylvania. Her work has appeared in Smithsonian, Ladies Home Journal, House Beautiful, Town & Country, Art and Antiques, and other publications.
