Dying for Love Angel Nicholas

Death is preferable to what awaits in her forgotten past...

Coffee is the only thing standing between Grace Debry and a straight-jacket since she gave up swearing in honor of her foster mom. A rash of break-ins makes her wonder if caffeine is enough. Especially when the notes left behind make it personal. Her brand-spanking new life is more nightmare than dream-come-true.

All Matthew Duncan has wanted since hiring Grace is to have her in his passenger seat, his arms, and his bed. As they grow closer, the feisty brunette proves to be a handful—one Matt is happy to hold. He's determined to give her the happily ever after she stopped believing in years ago. Unfortunately for Grace, it will take more than Matt's considerable resolve to keep her safe.

Three's a crowd—not that he cares. Every move she makes, every breath she takes ... he's watching. Waiting to reclaim what he lost.

Angel Nicholas pens another wildly passionate romantic suspense with Dying for Love.
