A short story (3100 words)

Amelia is an author who writes about love but has lost her belief in it. She is participating in a book signing week in yet another stop on what seems like an endless tour. When she escapes to a quiet corner of the bookstore Amelia meets the woman who she knows can restore her faith in love, but will she have a chance to find out?

Also included with this short story are extracts from R J Samuel's novels FALLING COLOURS (the first in the Vision Painter series) and HEART STOPPER (a medical thriller).
