Slowly: A Novella Barrabas King

Amanda Stone was a troubled girl. Abused for most of her life, she struggled to find peace in things her mind found peaceful. She fell in love with one of those things--an older man--when she was young, but he soon discovered that there would be no peace with Amanda Stone. Ten years after their relationship ended, she realized that he'd been right -- that the demons of her past would always lead her to ruin. She needed to find peace again with the love she'd destroyed, a love she could never find within the empty abyss that her demons had created. She went back to the only man she ever loved to heal old wounds. But some wounds never heal. They just kill you slowly. Slowly is a psychological horror novella about the chilling consequences of abuse and to what shocking lengths insanity will go to prevent it. The paperback edition contains an exclusive extended ending not available in the Kindle Edition.
