The Bear Who Slept Through Christmas John Barrett

The ever curious Ted E. Bear is off on another adventure, and this time he's looking for Christmas. While the other bears are hibernating, Ted E. Bear searches in another city for a place called Christmas where he'd heard there is beautiful music and wonderful presents. What he discovers is that Christmas is not a place, but a way of giving and loving and sharing. Children will delight in this heartwarming tale and the enchanting illustrations of Rick Reinert. This is a story which has become a Christmas classic.
