The Boston Celtics Encyclopedia Peter C B Jarkman

The Boston Celtics Encyclopedia provides the first comprehensive volume devoted to the narrative saga, statistical records, and photographic history of the most famous team in professional basketball annals, also the most relentlessly successful dynasty franchise in all of American sports history. This handsome ten-chapter book contains era-by-era historical accounts, player portraits, profiles of Celtic coaches and significant front-office personnel, and re-creations of the most memorable games and seasons of franchise history. No pro team in any sport provides a more impressive gallery of living legends culled from the team history. One prominent feature of this book is its vivid descriptive portraits capturing on-court playing styles, off-court personalities, memorable moments, and career achievements of fifteen Boston Celtics stars who have earned (or are shoo-ins to earn) permanent enshrinement in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Other Celtics stars and memorable journeymen, as well as great Celtics moments, are also here brought to life by one of pro basketball's leading historians.
