This timely follow-up to Conway's highly successful Marine Art of Geoff Hunt presents the considerable artistic output of Britain's leading marine painter since 2003. Heavily illustrated with images ranging from large paintings to sketchbook drawings, with text written by the artist himself, the book sets Geoff's work in a broadly geographical context, showcasing his plein-air work alongside exhaustively researched maritime history paintings, such as the definitive Mary Rose, to which he owes his standing as Britain's leading marine artist.
