A memoir with playlist, images, sound and the evidence of angels..... Edith sat on the front step of her house, for the first time in a long time she didn't know what to do. Her twenty-five year old daughter Simone had been missing for five days. Alcoholic and mentally unstable she was somewhere in Brisbane vulnerable to the predators that wait for a girl like her. To give her daughter hope in living Edith starts to write about a death that led her to break down, a bipolar and emotional vampire, predatory lesbian and to Max, a man who could explain chaos theory and liked a drink. Follow the steps to a universal truth that destiny is what you make it and what you pass on. Available as interactive ibooks author edition at iTunes $7.99, iPad only. Available as an eBook at smashwords $2.99
