Imagination By Moonlight: Living life boldly and successfully (Volume 1) Wes Adamson

My book is a kick-start to get you to where you want to be for a successful life. It's a book you can easily relate to about the reality of day-to-day events that confront you. Getting to the point of being happy with yourself is a life-long task. I can't do the hard part of putting these important areas of living life in action for you, but I can engage you with some personal experiences and insight that will open windows into your life. I ask the essential questions you need to face as to where your priorities and values are now. Use each chapter as a guide to help you set goals for obtaining a bold and successful life.

My writing voice is more of a storytelling style, permeated with humor and wisdom. I start off with a famous quote from what my Grandma always said..."When You're Dead, You're Dead For A Long...Long Time". But in my case maybe not all the time, as I was dead once and needed two back-to-back open heart surgeries. My surgeon massaged my heart relentlessly, until it finally restarted, this amidst some very tense, anxious moments. I was, needless to say, extremely elated when they started me up again; I was given a second chance to do a few things differently before being dead again.

Throughout my journey, I have learned how to prioritize areas of life that are the key building blocks for self-fulfillment. Each one of you, of course, is presently at a different place and stage of your own life journey. We all nevertheless have the same goal of wanting to engage in and experience activities that bring feelings of self-gratification. I hope to empower you to undertake a meaningful journey. Through personal anecdotes, I highlight essential topics to help encourage you to revisit your priorities and passions that will lead to a happier and more fulfilling life. My emphasis is on re-energizing and inspiring you to feel that you can make these changes happen.

Use Imagination By Moonlight: Living life boldly and successfully, as a tool for guiding and motivating you to lead a more rewarding life.
