Help Me, Please Sadie Hunter

Hannah can't help falling in love with her new neighbor, Jack Preston! The man was trying so hard to raise his deceased sister's baby, and their friendship grew by leaps and bounds the more time they spent with each other- until Jack promised to spank her if she went jogging in the park after dark again! Raised by an abusive father, Hannah wanted nothing to do with a man who would spank her. Jack was gentle when he told Hannah that a spanking was an act of love, and he insisted that he was going to spank her because he loved her, but could he banish all those old ghosts that came to terrify her?

Hannah continued to go jogging in the park, even though the Police were cautioning women not to be in the park alone after dark. It was Hannah's philosophy that what Jack didn't know wouldn't hurt her bottom, and she was careful to keep her late night excursions to herself- until the inevitable happened, and she is rescued by a policeman working undercover. It was time to find out if their love was strong enough to overcome her fears.
