"The worst thing that ever happened to us is Multiple Sclerosis."

"The best thing that ever happened to us is Multiple Sclerosis."

Dr. Rick Yeager saved lives as an ER physician. Mary Ellen Ziliak RN was passionate in the care of her patients. When MS struck, neither was prepared for the loss of identity, the ruination of a career, or the uncertainties which became their world. Now patients, joined in battle, they faced a daunting life challenge . . . a life challenge that became "The Red Door" they must go through. Knowledge empowered them. Acceptance gave them freedom. And day to day choices became their new purpose, filled with hope. Within this book lies the synchronicity of life.

"It is what it is. Face it, embrace it, and live life well!"
