Question and Answer: Graded Oral Comprehension Exercises L.G. Alexander

In each of the six chapters which constitute this book, there are ten passages followed by oral exercises which consist of carefully graded questions and answers. A detailed introduction to the teacher outlines the methods employed in the book and each chapter is preceded by a summary of the question forms that can be used. It may be begun by adult or secondary school students who have been learning English for a year or less, and it will bring them up to the level required by the Cambridge L.C.E. oral examination.
