What would it be like if you lived in the White House? Dee Dee, Jose, and Annie are about to find out! When their class takes a field trip to 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, the three accidentally knock George Washington out of his portrait and into real life, which turns their everyday tour into an unexpected adventure! As they try to get the nation's first President back into his painting, the kids come across other famous White House residents, including Abraham and Mary Todd Lincoln, Dolley Madison, and Jackie Kennedy. Through their madcap journey, they realize that the White House isn't just a tourist attraction--it's also a home.

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart or real their leisure activity. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Chasing George Washington (Kennedy Center Presents: Capital Kids) can make you feel more interested to read.
