Dreams Deferred Soltreu

A story of strength through chasing our dreams and dealing with a series of death, Darren Wright is a young Black man trying to get his life together. Recently out of prison for selling drugs, he is fighting to find employment and not be tempted to return to the lifestyle that got him in trouble. A Blessing helps him out of one situation and into a world he only dreamed of as an artist. Darren realizes the circle of life is helping others as he has been helped. Dreams Deferred captures moments of self-doubt and self-realization while this young man finds himself and his dreams. More importantly, Darren finds out how to push on through any tragedy.
