Curious? Society tends to encourage people to control their brain through pharmaceuticals. However, the counter-culture is not nearly as interested in the suppression of one's brain, so much as they are about its liberation into the known. Everything in life is a choice, a decision—a decision toward cooperation and connection, or against it. Ask an artist how to make a masterpiece painting and they might answer, "with one stroke at a time." Whether or not you believe it, everything you do is a choice; if you don't decide what you want, someone else will.
