Do you believe that all paths that cross, cross for a reason...?

Alex and Jessica's lives have been two very different stories up to date, parallel but separate, only now they're on an imminent course for collision that will change things for them forever.

Jessica - a lonely, loveless girl who's been dragged off on a miserable vacation in the woods with her dysfunctional family, whose constant pettiness drives her to flee one night during the midst of a full moon. Little does she know she's about to encounter

Alex - a man whose own life has been just as lonely as her own, though for entirely different reasons. As a teenager, Alex was bitten by a werewolf and infected, and on every full moon he transforms into a vicious, raging monster. He burns with the memory of a lost love, the one woman in the world he believed could have satiated his wild impulses.

Lily - a fellow werewolf since birth, who once meant as much to Alex as life itself, but then proceeded to leave him heartbroken when she traded in his love for that of the Alpha werewolf of another tribe.

In the present, the scent of a human female drives him insane with hunger, and despite his better impulses he springs to attack her, only to find that her stumbling into his territory may have more significant consequences than either of them could have imagined...
