Excerpt from The General Delusion of Christians Touching the Ways of God's Revealing Himself to and by the Prophets, Vol. 1 of 4: Evinced From Scripture and Primitive Antiquity, and Many Principles of Scoffers, Atheists, Sadducees, and Wild Enthusiasts, Refuted

Although the style of the following treatise is diffuse, it was considered better to reprint it without abridgment. It was written in answer to a volume consisting of three parts; the first entitled "The Spirit of Enthusiasm exorcised," by Dr. Hickee; the second, "an History of Montanism," by a Lay Gentleman, said to be Mr. Lee; the third, "The new Pretenders to Prophecy examined," by Mr. Spinkes. Both this volume, and the answer to it now reprinted, arose out of the celebrity which the persons, commonly called "French Prophets," had attained at the beginning of the last century. It would be foreign to the purpose in hand to enter into a more detailed account of those unhappy fanatics, or of the arguments by which their pretensions were supported, or opposed: but it is not unworthy of remark to any who should be tempted to waste their time in examining into the subject, that there was scarcely any reference made to Scripture by the disputants on either side; and it is hard to say whether the reasons adduced for them, or against them, are the more unsatisfactory. The most probable solution of the history is, that God did vouchsafe to afford supernatural support of various kinds to several of His servants who were witnessing to His truth against the abominations of the Papacy in the mountains of the Cevennes, to which they had fled at the Revocation of the Edict of Nantz; that some of the individuals so honoured did abuse their gifts, like the Corinthians of old; that others affected, by enthusiasm or excitement, to possess similar powers; that Satan enabled certain of his servants to imitate the servants of God, and to do wonders also; and thus the work considered as a whole presented such confusion and predominance of positive evil, that it is impossible now to separate the gold from the dross, or scarcely to recognise any of the precious metal.
