He Knows Your Name: A Hope Speaks Novel Debbie Giese

The secrets that define us are often evident to everyone but ourselves. Cass Parker and Caroline McKay carry more baggage between the two of them than a Greyhound bus. Cass, abandoned by her father as a child, finds herself alone and pregnant at thirty-five. Her world turns upside-down when the police deliver a backpack belonging to her father; what she finds shakes the foundation of everything she believed to be true. Caroline is unable to outrun the scars of an abusive past; bent on self-destruction, she is determined to take Cass down with her. Cass and Caroline are on a collision course with hope and with each other. Both think they have God figured out until they meet Him in ways that challenge everything they believed to be true. Both women are offered a chance for redemption and forgiveness-but will they take it? In He Knows Your Name, Debbie Giese takes a courageous look at the issues that defined many of us growing up and redefines them in the light of Truth. She writes with a rare blend of humility, humor, and transparency.
