Dreaming of Darkness (Guardians of Light Book 1) PJ Lightning

The Protectorates of the planet Reyth are defended by the Tyrean people, who are known as the Guardians of Light.

All Guardians possess at least one of the seven Gifts of Magic: Gleaning, Dreamwalking, Transmutation, Shapeshifting, Healing, Illusion, Translocation.

The most powerful are called Sorcerers. Each partners with a Ponfour to travel the Protectorates. The Ponfourii are often less Gifted, but train rigorously in all forms of combat.

Only two Tyreans possess all seven of the Gifts. Known as the Rykatuui, they are the most powerful and honoured of the Guardians of Light.

When the insane creature who calls himself Xian the Shadowmaker, walks into the Rykatu Crystu's dream to propose that she become his bride and mother of a new race, her rejection is immediate and instinctive.

Enraged, he promises to plunge her world into eternal shadow unless she changes her mind.

Crystu and her close friend and Ponfour, Tam, must learn the Shadowmaker's plan, if her people are to stop him, but his first move strikes much closer than either of them ever expected.

Crystu, young, inexperienced, volatile, and headstrong, must learn to control her reactions and temper, if she is to grow into her responsibilities and duties as one of the two most powerful of the Guardians of Light. She and Tam will have their courage tested to extremes and if they fail, their people will lose everything that they have built in three thousand years.

The Shadowmaker's plan is already well advanced and his aim is total conquest of the Protectorates, the destruction of the Way of Light, and his own freedom from his three thousand year imprisonment.

An old fashion adventure tale of good versus evil, courage, loss, and hope, and fighters who will risk all in the service of their God. On one side, the Tyreans defend their Protectorates for the Lord of Light, the creator of everything, on the other side insane Xian the Shadowmaker, and his followers, plan for total conquest. In the end, victory will depend on the courage and strength of one man, with the support of his closest friends.
