Peter Pan James Matthew Barrie

Sir James Matthew BARRIE (1860-1937), born in Kirriemuir, Scotland, the son of a handloom weaver, educated at Dumfries and Edinburgh University. He began work with the "Nottinghamshire Journal", an experience described in "When a Man's Single" (1888). In the same year he began his series of "Kailyard School" stories and novels, based on the life of Thrums, his home town of Kirriemuir. "Peter Pan", his internationally famous children's play, grew from stories he had made up for the five sons of his friends Arthur and Sylvia Llewelyn Davies, to whom he gave a home on their parents' death. It was first performed in 1904 and was followed by a story, "Peter Pan in Kensington Gardens" (1906) and by the play in book form in 1911.
